Vision Vs. Vision

In the liturgy of the first Sunday of Lent we were presented with the challenge of temptations and allurements of Satan and his evil designs. After forty days of fasting and prayer in the desert where Jesus was trying to find meaning to human existence and God's plans in our life, He was severely tempted by Satan as to the futility of seeking God's will in our life. From the point of Satan there was more to human life in pursuing earthly desires, our biological drives and psychological motives such as hunger, sex, ambition, popularity and the kind. Like a young man who, standing on the threshold of the future and on the verge of making a career choice so to say, is presented with canvases of future visions, made aware of his skills, prowess and the possible leap he should take into, Jesus was faced with similar challenge on the face of the temptations He had. Satan made Jesus aware that He had the divine power to change stone into bread, that He had God's favour on Him and that God's angels would take care of Him, if He jumps down from the temple pinnacle. Or if those were not His choice, then the shortcuts to riches was available just by bowing to him. Many a young people who do not wish to pursue the hard way of higher studies for a better quality of life, succumb to such short-cuts to riches such as accepting slavery to the underworld dons, or being nachbalia in hotels and the kind and ending up with the loss of character, honour and even one's soul.

But there is another kind of vision. This vision can make a difference in your life. It may require a hard way, a real challenge and struggle to reach the real goal in life that makes sense and gives meaning to life. This vision is presented in the gospel passage presented to us in the liturgy of the second Sunday of Lent in Luke 9:28-36. The passage on the transfiguration of Jesus presents to us the mind and plans of God for each one of us. The scene was an anticipation of Jesus' resurrection – a goal that was obtainable only through the way of the cross and bowing your head to God's will on the cross of life. "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain.

Lent is a journey to the realization of the ultimate purpose of human existence. Resurrection is the final goal of life. It can only be achieved the hard way of the cross by self-denial, prayer and fasting. The real vision of life is moksha, the beatific vision, the vision of transfiguration, the vision of resurrection. Everyone has a choice to make – vision Vs vision What is your choice?

The enemy will wait forty years, if necessary, to set a trap for you.
--Joe Alrich.

RINGS & RAINBOWS – 2007 “

11th February, 2007 World Marriage Day was organised by Family Cell of St. John the Baptist Church by hoisting “Rings & Rainbows - 2007” for Thane Deanery in which 43 couples from Parishes of Vikhroli / Powai to Ambernath participated. The event commenced with the Eucharist at 5.30 p.m. celebrated by Fr. Gerald Fernandes of St. John's Thane who in his homily focused on the issue of love among couples and family, acceptance of spouse as they are, building bonds of love that strengthen the marriage foundations. During the Eucharist the couples renewed their marriage vows.

This was followed by a skit interwoven in an audio visual presentation on “Communication between Couples” by Desmond DSilva who highlighted verbal and non verbal channels of communication, skills in communication for a better married life and various danger areas which originate distorted communications between couples leading to cracks within marriage and family. The couples participated in various skill games & shared married life experiences, intermingled and unwinding in an ambience atmosphere of fun, music and entertainment, taking back memories of wonderful, enjoyable and unforgettable evening cumulating into sumptuous dinner.

St John's Parish Priest Fr. John Rumao made time available to spend a few moments with the couples advising them to a positive communicating approach cumulating to a healthy and more meaningful married life.

St. John's Thane Parish Family Cell thanks Fr. Gerald Fernandes who rescheduled his appointments committing himself to this event and Fr. John Rumao for his advice, guidance and financial sanction without which this Thane Deanery event would not have materialized. Based on the overwhelming response from the couples, St. John the Baptist Thane Parish Family Cell have planned many more events for the family in the coming year.

The Psychological Aspect of Cancer

The word CANCER fears everybody. Today, research in the field of cancer has advanced by leaps and bounds, and now cancer is curable if detected at an early stage. However, people especially in the developing world still remain ignorant of this fact, and continue to fear this dreaded disease.

As soon as an individual learns that one has contracted a disease called cancer, all life's activities come to a sudden halt. One's life is turned into darkness. One feels lost in a dark world in which finding light is a distant dream. One loses interest in everything, as depression conquers the mind. A series of negative reactions set into motion, and one feels unwanted by society. Some individuals go to the extent of committing suicide, for fear of an uncertain future.

The psychological reaction that sets in after being attacked by cancer, makes the diseased person very weak mentally, and gives cancer an opportunity to become aggressive. The diseased person shows total hopelessness and is least interested in fighting back. Lack of proper diet, refusal to undergo treatment, and constant negative thought patterns makes matters worse.

Cancer is such a disease that health professionals will have to view it in a much broader sense. Treatment directed not only towards the symptoms but also towards correcting the psychological aspects, will help in alleviating human suffering caused due to cancer.

WHEN SHOULD WE SAY 'NO' TO OUR CHILDREN?

Psychologist Seema Hingorrany gives you tips on when and how you can say no to your children:

- Saying 'no' increasing your child's endurance level
- Be honest with your kids
- Teach them the concept of money and savings
- Inculcate moral values and discipline by explaining to them
- Teach them to value things
- Do not give in to their unreasonable demands
- If you want to gift something, give it as a reward or token of praise.

Mother Teresa and I

[A testimony of an actress]

--by Lata Kushbuchandani

Her film career and personal life have been the focus of gossip magazines for several decades. What readers may not know is that our very own vamp Shashikala spent nine years of her life serving with Mother Teresa, a privilege many would give their eye-teeth for [Shashikala's name has been announced for the Padmashri this year. Here is her life with the mother in her own words.]

I was passing through a period of extreme frustration in my life when I went to visit my daughter Shaila in Kolkata. I saw Mother Teresa at the airport and felt a strange force pulling me to her. Once in Kolkata, I tried to get an appointment. But Mother was ill at the time. I met Sister Agnes, her right hand. They thought that I am an actress and I was doing this for publicity. I told Agnes everything: my personal and professional troubles and felt sorry I couldn't meet Mother. The sister Superior told me that to serve here was not easy. I responded that I would do whatever they asked me to.

For three days they put me to cleaning toilets – and you can imagine toilets used by insane and sick people. Then they made me clean the dormitories. I did that too. Then they asked me to do dressing of leprosy patient and I did that. Then one day a very sick patient was brought in and they asked me to help with him. He was undressed and I saw maggots crawling out of his wounds. It was an unbelievable sight. I suddenly understood that I had little to complain about. I had health, I had money, I was not dependant anyone. I was sent to dress a patient who had huge wounds and just looking at him was difficult. But I felt a current pass through me as if someone was giving me strength to do this work and I continued serving at the Home.

One day I told my daughter, let's try and see if Mother will meet me. We saw Mother talking to some foreigners and waited. After the visitors left, Mother called us and soon as I looked at her I broke down and cried my heart out. I told her, "Mother, god has given me everything but I have no peace within me."

She told me to come the next day. After that I served there for nine years, looking after the diseased and the wounded, feeding them, caring for them, holding them when they were dying. Mother sent me to different places –near Dum Dum to a kid' ashram, then to Nirmal Hriday where they had a home for destitute people. I served there .all this took my mind off my own situation. I told mother "I have forgotten my past". Mother replied, "past is like ash. Why hold on to it?" When I watched Mother, I learnt what service was she'd wear a sari that was torn and darned; her food consisted of one banana, a biscuit and cup of tea. It cost a rupee only. Even when she was ill she only ate that. Even if she was raging with fever she continued working. She'd give a discourse on Christ and we'd all listen.

She sent me to Asansol where only leprosy patients are kept. The work there was to sit on a stool, count the tablets given to leprosy patients and put them in small boxes. This drives you up the wall because you are bent over the table counting these tiny tablets. The patients live as normal a life as possible; they marry, they have kids if the kids have leprosy they are treated. I saw so much peace and contentment in these people. So often they had to get a finger or toe amputated-they'd go very normally and get it done like it was no big deal, there was so much acceptance in them.

I found myself changing. I had found a kind of peace within myself. I returned to the film industry. Mother cautioned me not to repeat my past mistakes. I had gone to Calcutta in 1989 and spent nine years in mother Teresa's ashram. My eldest daughter was suffering from cancer. One morning I felt heavy and suffocated. Suddenly a cross appeared on my left hand and the heaviness disappeared. Then the statue of Jesus appeared on my right hand. I called mother and told her this and she explained that Jesus is saying you will have to bear your own cross.

Again I saw Mother, Jesus and a child. This gave me hope that my daughter would recover but she passed away. I made her say the gayatri mantra, I told her to forgive all those who had harmed her and ask forgiveness from others. She did all this and passed away peacefully. I called mother and told her. She said that we will pray for your daughter's souls and then she said 'God bless you' in my ear thrice-something she never did.

The strength from her words sustains me till today. Marathi playwright Mohan Wagh wanted Mother to inaugurate his play. She obliged and his play All the Best became superhit. Once Saira Banu and Dilipsaab asked to meet mother-They came along with Naseem Banu; Mother was very happy. She loved seeing happy couples and blessed them. They asked about Sanjay Dutt and she said she'd pray for him. Filmmaker Sawan Kumar Tak wanted to meet Mother and donated Rs 50 lakh to her ashram. Later he told me that he hadn't received a receipt that he wanted for tax purposes. I told mother and she personally wrote a note thanking him and sent the receipt.

My grand daughter Sonia wanted to meet Mother. Mother looked divinely radiant that day and her face was shining incredibly as she blessed us. Next day she passed away.

The Sisters told me that we were the last people she blessed, and that the letter to Sawan Kumar was the last letter mother wrote to anyone, so could they have it back if he didn't mind?
