I Am The Way

There may not be anything wrong in becoming rich. But in the process man should not enslave himself to evil. His pursuit of wealth should be just; it should not lead to corruption. Is it worth falling at the feet of Satan to become rich? Is it worth giving up all the principles for the sake of greater profit? Is it worth losing one's name and dignity for the sake of perishable wealth? There is a desire for prestige in every human being. It is good to be ambitious. One has to remember that there is no short cut to achieve ambitions. Those who perform extraordinary feats did not reach that stage overnight. They did not reach that stage merely by praying. One cannot call upon God's name and jump from Empire building and hope to escape death. One cannot achieve great things without hard work and without using all one's energies and resources. Such a hope would be an insult to God as it would have been if Jesus were to call upon God's name and jump from the pinnacle of the temple.

Jesus did not look for easy and cheap means to prove his divinity. He proved himself the hard way-through life-long struggle and suffering and death. We all are standing at the threshold of Lent. The whistle marking a fresh Lent is already blown. We are asked to blowout Satan out of our lives. Only by surrendering ourselves to the Lord we will be able to do that.

In today's gospel passage we are told that Jesus vanquished Satan in all the three tests. Like our Master we should not become the vanquished but the victors. Today alienation, anomie, boredom, rage, pressure, inequality, status, wealth and anxiety have become the coin of our daily conversation. We are constantly exposed to these and unconsciously we absorb them into our lives. What we need to do is to be reconciled with God and one another.

John Ruskin narrates an incident in his life. A woman possessed a beautiful handkerchief. Somehow she stained it with a mark and was very upset. Ruskin took it from her. He incorporated that blot into a wonderfully intricate design with his paints. The kerchief became exquisite. What artist Ruskin did with that soiled kerchief God will do with us. He will take the rough and crude cloth of our lives and turn it into a silk one. Are we ready to cooperate with him?

Man, dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return.

RINGS & RAINBOWS – 2007 “

11th February, 2007 World Marriage Day was organised by Family Cell of St. John the Baptist Church by hoisting “Rings & Rainbows - 2007” for Thane Deanery in which 43 couples from Parishes of Vikhroli / Powai to Ambarnath participated. The event commenced with the Eucharist at 5.30 p.m. celebrated by Fr. Gerald Fernandes of St. John's Thane who in his homily focused on the issue of love among couples and family, acceptance of spouse as they are, building bonds of love that strengthen the marriage foundations. During the Eucharist the couples renewed their marriage vows.

This was followed by a skit interwoven in an audio visual presentation on “Communication between Couples” by Desmond DSilva who highlighted verbal and non verbal channels of communication, skills in communication for a better married life and various danger areas which originate distorted communications between couples leading to cracks within marriage and family. The couples participated in various skill games & shared married life experiences, intermingled and unwinding in an ambience atmosphere of fun, music and entertainment, taking back memories of wonderful, enjoyable and unforgettable evening cumulating into sumptuous dinner.

St John's Parish Priest Fr. John Rumao made time available to spend a few moments with the couples advising them to a positive communicating approach cumulating to a healthy and more meaningful married life.

St. John's Thane Parish Family Cell thanks Fr. Gerald Fernandes who rescheduled his appointments committing himself to this event and Fr. John Rumao for his advice, guidance and financial sanction without which this Thane Deanery event would not have materialized. Based on the overwhelming response from the couples, St. John the Baptist Thane Parish Family Cell have planned many more events for the family in the coming year.

The Psychological Aspect of Cancer

The word CANCER fears everybody. Today, research in the field of cancer has advanced by leaps and bounds, and now cancer is curable if detected at an early stage. However, people especially in the developing world still remain ignorant of this fact, and continue to fear this dreaded disease.

As soon as an individual learns that one has contracted a disease called cancer, all life's activities come to a sudden halt. One's life is turned into darkness. One feels lost in a dark world in which finding light is a distant dream. One loses interest in everything, as depression conquers the mind. A series of negative reactions set into motion, and one feels unwanted by society. Some individuals go to the extent of committing suicide, for fear of an uncertain future.

The psychological reaction that sets in after being attacked by cancer, makes the diseased person very weak mentally, and gives cancer an opportunity to become aggressive. The diseased person shows total hopelessness and is least interested in fighting back. Lack of proper diet, refusal to undergo treatment, and constant negative thought patterns makes matters worse.

Cancer is such a disease that health professionals will have to view it in a much broader sense. Treatment directed not only towards the symptoms but also towards correcting the psychological aspects, will help in alleviating human suffering caused due to cancer.

THE NEW WAY OF BEING THE CHURCH

The synod 2001 has given the Church in the Archdiocese of Mumbai a new vision. Both worship and service go hand in hand in our spiritual journey to Heavenly Mansion. Today, therefore, we have found a new way of "being the church." We are no more individual believers steeped in our own day-to-day worries and concerns. We are a community of believers, members of the mystical Body of Christ, branches of Jesus Christ, the Vine, a family of God. Life must flow from cell to cell, branch to branch, member to member. And that is what we begin to experience in the new way of being the church. We are one in the Spirit, of one heart and one mind.

The various cells and committees which are being formed are a help to improve the quality of family life, youth movement, human empowerment, education, social work and above all moral and spiritual well-being of the community.

The scheme of 1% tithing towards the Community Welfare Fund has also taken off well. The response has been very encouraging and praiseworthy. Committed parishioners have been religiously making their 1% tithing contribution to this fund from January 2005, well aware that they are giving to God God's money for God's work among God's people. The year from January 2006 to 31st December 2006 yielded a harvest of Rs. 10,49,943.00

The Lord has shown us the way of service to others. Let all the needy parishioners feel rest assured that if your need is genuine and you really can not cope with it with the means at your disposal, the parish community will be at your service through its organizations such as church, school the SVP and the CWF.

Our faith has made us strong. Let us then join hands to empower our people by extending our services to them in their needs. We thank all those parishioners who have been faithfully making their tithing contribution. In gratitude, their names have been listed below with their 1% tithing ID numbers.

—Parish Priest.

Monopoly of Services

In order to make it easy for the parishioners to have their occasions celebrated in a fitting manner, the Parish Church has been making its hall, grounds and pavilion, terrace etc available to the parishioners. It has been noticed that in the past when the caterers or DJ owners were engaged from outside the parish, the sites were not kept clean nor proper care was taken of the furniture or the facilities kept open to the use of the invitees. It has been therefore decided to appoint a panel of caterers and that of D.J. owners residing in the parish. This will ensure the safety of the premises and also promote the services of the parish entrepreneurs. We are therefore pleased to appoint the following panels of services from among whom the hirers may engage the services of any one of them.

OUTREACH PROGRAM

By Bro. Trevor Lewis of

Jeevan Jal Ministry

[Catholic Renewal

Ministry] to be held from

19th April to 22nd April,

2007 from 6.30 p.m. to

10.00 p.m. in the quadrangle

Smile, Giggle, Laugh!

It was an exclusive party. Among the many VIP's present, was an Ambassador whose eyesight was not too good.

When dancing commenced, he saw someone with whom he wished to dance. Approaching the person he said: "Hello you beautiful lady in red, may I have the pleasure of this waltz?" "Certainly not," was the answer. "In the first place this is not a waltz, it is a tango. In the second place I am not a beautiful lady in red, I am the papal Nuncio."
